

Anthony J. Sarkis

In 2008, Mr. Sarkis joined Newbridge Securities Corporation as Senior Managing Director of Investment Banking bringing 17 years of experience with a focus on merchant banking, investment banking and private equity for small/mid-market capitalization companies. During his tenure, Mr. Sarkis has led private and public financings in excess of $3.6 billion, having completed transactions on a global basis, including Europe, the Middle East, China and the Association of South East Nations (ASEAN) world. From 2006 to 2008 Mr. Sarkis was the Senior Managing Director, Head of Investment Banking at H.C. Wainwright. From 2002 to 2006, Mr. Sarkis was a founder and the Director of Investment Banking at Maxim Group. From 1998 to 2002, he was Managing Director in the Healthcare and Technology Banking Groups at Investec, Inc. and from 1990 to 1998 he was Director of Corporate Finance at a regional boutique underwriter. He attended McGill University (Montreal), and the BS/DO Biomedical degree program at the NYIT/ New York College of Osteopathic Medicine. At Newbridge Mr. Sarkis is focusing on public and private financing as well as advisory services for companies located in Asia. Currently, he is managing transactions in Singapore, China, Cambodia, the Philippines and Australia as well as Newbridge's U.S. Pipeline

Newbridge Securities Corporation