

Douglas K. Aguililla

Executive Managing Director, Investment Banking

Mr. Aguililla has been in the securities industry for over twenty years, and is the founder the Investment Banking Department for Newbridge Securities Corporation. Since inception, his department has been involved in transactions totaling over $6 billion of which Newbridge was an underwriter in transactions that totaled over $400 million. His focus has been on capitalizing companies in the small and mid-market capitalization space in various industries, including Homeland Security & Defense, Oil & Gas, Technology, Healthcare and Life Sciences as well as those in the Global Emerging Markets of Latin America and Asia. His duties include the origination of new business for the firm, as well as management and coordination of all execution activities of the department which include the internal marketing of transactions into the Newbridge retail platform as well as the creation of a syndicate of other financial institutions to distribute the firm's offerings. Previously, Mr. Aguililla was a co-founder of a Florida based broker dealer, Emerson Bennett and Associates, where he founded the investment Banking department and performed numerous capital markets roles which included trading the firm's capital, market making in equities, and serving as a municipal bond principal. Mr. Aguililla also worked at GKN Securities, where he was the Southeast Regional Sales Manager, instituting a training program for all new employees that was eventually implemented nationally throughout the firm.
