Company Release -07/23/2020 11:00 AM ET

Boca Raton, Florida, July 23, 2020 —Newbridge Securities Corporation (“NSC”), is celebrating Don Selkin, the creator and innovator of the “Fair Value” numbers, as its Chief Market Strategist on its platform, with its 38 year anniversary. Mr. Selkin has given CNBC, and its predecessor, these numbers every day for the last 38 years – never missing a single day, as well as given the fair value for the Nasdaq 100 futures since their introduction in 1996 and the Dow Jones stock index futures since 1997. Mr. Selkin has also been quoted in several publications including but not limited to Bloomberg News, New York Post, Reuters, and The New York Times. Mr. Selkin’s Fair Value numbers are included in the U.S. Futures Report broadcast on CNBC every day before the market opens attributing “Newbridge Securities” as the source. In addition, NSC provides to its professionals, their clients and the public access to Don Selkin’s more in depth financial market views.

“Seeing Don Selkin’s “Fair Value” numbers as part of the U.S. Futures Report airing on CNBC, occurring now for over 38 years without missing even 1 day, speaks to Don’s passion and commitment to give the investing public an understanding of the financial markets “Fair Value” before the U.S. market opens,” said Thomas Casolaro, CEO, Newbridge Securities Corporation. “There are millions of investors around the world that rely on these numbers every morning. In addition, on the NSC web site, www.newbridgesecurities.com, we periodically provide his market commentary to the investing public. .” Mr. Selkin added, “It is a pleasure to help in providing this crucial information that makes investors more aware of how the markets should start out on any given day and how they can adjust their investing and trading strategies accordingly”.
